HIGHLIGHTS OF NORTHWESTERN NOSY BE

NOSY BE, MADAGASCAR

Experience the tropical charms of northwestern Nosy Be on this relaxing tour. Board your coach in Hell-Ville, a colonial capital whose forbidding name actually derives from 19th-century French Admiral Louis de Hell, and journey to a lively marketplace where locally grown vegetables, colourful fruits and exotic spices are on offer. Drive on through the luxuriant countryside, passing Malagasy villages and plantations. Farther along, see unusual balloon-shaped homes in Dzamandzar, Nosy Be’s second largest city, and stop at Mont Passot to take in stunning views of the Ampharihibe crater lakes. Finally, refresh with a quick dip at Madirokely Beach before enjoying a beverage at a hotel.

NORTHERN EUROPE Embrace the wonder and spectacle of Northern Europe in summertime with this beguiling two-week voyage. Combining quaint English villages, Irish castles, Welsh peaks and the scenic coastlines of Northern Ireland, your cruise starts with a lesson in the United Kingdom’s diversity. Bound for Danish shores next, you have a day to relax before Tórshavn in the remote Faroe Islands greets you. Explore the turf-roofed houses of Tinganes or hike past mountain lakes and waterfalls before ending your voyage amidst the lava fields, hot springs and fascinating museums of Iceland.

HEIMAËY, ICELAND

INCLUDED SHORE EXCURSION EXAMPLE

LAVA WALK WITH LOCALS

HEIMAËY, ICELAND

Walk through Vestmannaeyjar, the only town on Heimaey Island, with a local guide. You will begin at the harbour, which was nearly destroyed in the catastrophic 1973 volcanic eruption – the island’s only eruption in recorded history. Hundreds of homes were engulfed in lava and hot ash, and the population of about 5,000 had to be evacuated. The lava flowed for six months, but its progress was slowed and controlled by pumping seawater on its leading edges. That enormous undertaking saved the town. You will have the opportunity to walk across the now hardened lava field and see remnants of the houses that the eruption buried. From this unique vantage point, you will enjoy a sweeping view of Vestmannaeyjar.

WESTERN MEDITERRANEAN This enticing voyage features three different overnights in port, perfect for evening excursions or independent exploration in Lisbon, Bordeaux and Lorient as the sun sets. A day at sea offers a chance to relax and reset before soaking up the Moorish splendour of Malaga – also the birthplace of the hugely prolific artist Picasso. Portugal beckons next, its history reflected in Lisbon’s Alfama district and Oporto’s famous port wine cellars. The final few days of your cruise unfold against a backdrop of verdant vineyards, inviting bistros and Renaissance villages in France.

BEAUTY OF STOCKHOLM'S
WATERSIDE SETTING
STOCKHOLM, SWEDEN

Enjoy a wonderfully scenic cruise through the city centre of Stockholm, a patchwork of 14 islands connected by dozens of bridges. While taking in the views, you will hear commentary describing the landmarks along the shore and the glassy waterways between the islands. The exact route will depend on the day and water traffic, but regardless of where you cruise, the sights will be spectacular. Chances are, you will cruise past Djurgården, an island oasis that was once the royal family's hunting grounds and is now the world's first national urban park. Along the way, sweet cinnamon buns and a hot beverage will be served.

EXQUISITE ROME
BY NIGHT
ROME (CIVITAVECCHIA), ITALY

Rome's landmarks look even more magnificent at night when they are beautifully lit for dramatic effect. Drive past many of the most iconic attractions, including the Colosseum, St. Peter's Basilica and Circus Maximus, an ancient chariot racetrack that was also used for gladiator fights. Commentary will enhance your understanding of Roman life through the centuries. In time, you will arrive at Navona Square, an atmospheric plaza built over a stadium from the 1st century. The square exudes history through its trio of baroque fountains and architectural treasures such as the Sant'Agnese in Agone church. Being centrally located, the square offers all sorts of options for you to shop and dine on your own.

THE SOOTHING NATURE OF HAKODATE

HAKODATE, JAPAN

Revitalise yourself with a stroll through a classic Japanese-style garden and a visit to a hot springs resort. Few green spaces are quite so relaxing as the well-shaded gardens of Kosetsuen, which were originally designed for a wealthy merchant in the late 19th century. The draw of Yunokawa Onsen is its hot springs, which first became famous in the 17th century, when a lord of an aristocratic family supposedly recovered from a terminal illness after bathing there. If nothing more, your footbath in the mineral-rich waters will be incredibly soothing and put you in just the right mood to explore the shops, sights and restaurants of Hakodate Bay.

THE ISLAND OF GOZO
VALLETTA, MALTA

Board a ferry on the northwestern tip of Malta for the brief crossing to the nearby island of Gozo. You’ll journey inland to the Ggantija Temples, a UNESCO World Heritage site that comprises Malta’s earliest megalithic monuments, which include structures that predate Stonehenge and the Great Pyramids of Egypt. Notice the round, curved architecture, which is said to pay homage to the full-figured goddess of fertility, and find cannon-like stones believed to be tools used to hoist the site’s multi-ton slabs into place. Upon reaching Victoria, Gozo’s capital, view its ancient Cittadella and Baroque Cathedral of the Assumption, built in the shape of a Latin cross. Enjoy time on your own to shop or explore further before savouring a traditional Maltese lunch.

View an extraordinary natural wonder in the countryside and watch artisans create high-quality pewterware that is revered the world over. Although the Batu Caves are magnificent on their own, the caves at the top of the limestone outcropping are particularly spectacular as they contain several Hindu temples. Like the many pilgrims who visit, you must climb 272 steps to reach the temples, but it will be well worth the effort. The allure of Royal Selangor is its exquisite pewter products. Besides touring the factory, you will handcraft your own pewter souvenir there and engrave your name on it. You will also pause for photos of an even more ambitious man-made marvel – the Petronas Twin Towers, once the world's tallest buildings.

OTAGO HARBOUR
WILDLIFE CRUISE
DUNEDIN, NEW ZEALAND

Enjoy rare close-up views of nesting albatrosses, fur seals and other fascinating wildlife on an observation cruise around Otago Harbour and out to Taiaroa Head. It's just a short drive from the ship to the floating pontoon where you'll board your sightseeing vessel. Along the way, your captain will provide rich commentary about the impressively unspoiled environment. Once at Taiaroa Head, you'll be immersed in a scene alive with wildlife – boasting over 10 species of nesting birds amongst its inhabitants, including the world's only mainland breeding colony of Royal Albatrosses. Southern Fur Seals also breed along this isolated stretch of rugged shoreline, and many other mammals make a home here as well. You might even spot some of the area's winsome penguins and playful dolphins.

CARIBBEAN TO SOUTH AMERICA Begin 2027 with new horizons that stretch from the balmy islands of the Caribbean to the cobbled streets and colourful homes of Salvador. After a few days at sea to unwind, the soft sands, rum cocktails and beautiful vistas of Antigua, St. Lucia and Barbados welcome you. A day surrounded by the lush, green foliage of Devil's Island–once a penal colony, but now reclaimed by nature–offer pause for thought before Brazil beckons. Venture along one of the Amazon's tributaries from Belém, soak up the colonial architecture of Recife and relish the buzzing atmosphere of Maceió's Old Town.

CATAMARAN
AND OLD RECIFE
RECIFE, BRAZIL

Sail a catamaran along a river through downtown Recife to discover why the city is sometimes referred to as 'Brazil's Venice'. The sprawling city covers three islands filled with everything from soaring skyscrapers to colourful colonial mansions. Some 40 bridges tie it all together, and they, too, vary widely in age and architectural style. Next, you'll exchange your catamaran for a coach and head for the Marco Zero Square. From there, you'll walk along the Rua do Bom Jesus, admiring its remarkable buildings from the 17th century. You will visit an old building that today houses the Museum of the Giant Puppets of Olinda – a permanent exhibition of more than 70 giant puppets used in carnival parades.
